Dennis D. Husch Appointed to the Damage Prevention Advisory Committee by the Virginia State Corporation Commission

The Virginia State Corporation Commission Division of Utility and Railroad Safety appointed Dennis D. Husch of Herndon, Virginia, to the Damage Prevention Advisory Committee for a two-year term, expiring December 31, 2007. This is Husch's second term. The Advisory Committee reviews reports of probable violations of the Underground Utility Damage Prevention Act, including the process of marking utilities, and recommends enforcement actions to the Commission. The Committee also addresses important issues concerning the damage prevention program in Virginia.

Husch has served as a member of the Herndon Town Council since 1994 and has been a resident of Herndon for more than 20 years. He serves as chair of the Council's Level of Service Ad-Hoc Committee and has served on the Council's Finance Ad-Hoc Committee and as the Town's representative to the Transportation Coordinating Council, World Congress for Information Technology, and the YMCA Community Advisory Task Force. He also served on the Commonwealth's Joint Commission on Science and Technology. Husch holds a B.S. in Business Administration.

The Town of Herndon was incorporated by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Virginia on January 14, 1879. Located in western Fairfax County, Herndon is the 3rd largest town in the Commonwealth and is home to more than 22,000 citizens. Businesses located within the Town of Herndon, which range from high tech enterprises to entrepreneurially-owned establishments, employ approximately 23,500 people.
